

Bismarck an Alarmist

He Uses the German Press for This Purpose.

ADVANCING HIS OWN INTEREST.

He Loses No Opportunity to Let the World Know That He is Still in Existence. Other Selections from the Dispatches Over the Atlantic Cable.

PARIS, July 18.—From time to time Prince Bismarck seems to take pleasure in notifying the European world, through some one or more of his numerous organs of the press, that all is not serene in the political world. The thing has been rather overdone.

Europe in general and France in particular have come to understand that these notifications are meant only to keep the world in mind of the existence and importance of Prince Bismarck; but there is also an uneasy feeling that some day, when it is least expected, the cloud will burst, and then Prince Bismarck will say that there has been ample warning of the coming of the storm. It is not always convenient that these warnings aforesaid should be issued from German soil. Prince Bismarck has his organs in all parts of Europe, and uses one or another as best suits his purpose of the moment. One of the latest announcements is made in the Vienna press, as follows:

"There are illusions at Berlin on the subject of the czar's intentions. It is perfectly understood that he wishes to strike a blow at Germany. In view of the sentiments which he manifests toward his neighbors and a savage joy with which they are greeted by the Russian press, it would be vain to cherish the hope that peace can be long maintained."

Such a publication would be more alarming if the world were not getting used to the raising of the war specter and to its sudden disappearance after the raising of Prince Bismarck's potent hand.

A Rule That Reacts.

LONDON, July 18.—There is a tempest in a teapot in the colonial office whence the chief secretary recently issued an order to the effect that colonial cabinet ministers who are entitled to the prefix "honorable," must not sport that distinction within the limits of the United Kingdom. Now Lord Knutsford discovers that it is a poor rule that won't work both ways, and the authorities of New South Wales threaten if this order is not revoked they will refuse to recognize British titles within their boundaries.

Masonry and Politics.

LONDON, July 18.—The Prince of Wales has put an emphatic veto upon the proposal to establish a Masonic lodge in connection with the National Liberal club. The Grand Master is afraid of Masonry becoming in any way involved in politics, and when recently the Primrose club, the Tory organization made a similar proposal, he refused to sanction it for the same reason.

Talk of Uniting.

PARIS, July 18.—A proposal from Belgian delegates to unite with the Marxist congress precipitated a long discussion at the labor conference last night. The American, Belgian and Dutch delegates were in favor of the proposition. The rest insisted upon a strict examination of credentials. The proposal will probably be regretted.

Germany and Not France.

BERLIN, July 18.—The North German Gazette takes the occasion of the riot caused in Paris last Sunday by the display of an Italian flag, to remind the Italians that their interests are with Germany and not with France.

Sugar Advancing.

BERLIN, July 18.—It was decided at Madgeburg yesterday to allow the sugar ring till Sept. 15 to fill contracts. The price of sugar rose upon this report being possible.

Jack Gave Warning.

LONDON, July 18.—It is circulated that Jack the Ripper wrote a letter to the police officials before this last murder, stating that he was about to resume his work.

The Boulanger Indictment.

LONDON, July 18.—Gen. Boulanger declares that the indictment found against him by the French government is founded upon deliberate falsehoods.

Damaging Storm.

BERLIN, July 18.—The Canton of Glarus was visited by a terrible thunder storm yesterday. Traffic was delayed, bridges destroyed and one life lost.

Earthquake Shocks.

LONDON, July 18.—An earthquake shock was felt yesterday on the Island of Arran and on the mainland of Scotland. Houses were shaken.

Users of American Cotton Effected.

LONDON, July 18.—Short time cotton movement will begin in August. It will only effect users of American cotton.

Death of Princess Augusta.

COPENHAGEN, July 18.—Princess Augusta, sister of the Queen of Denmark, is dead.

NEW YORK IN 1892.

Steps Being Taken for a National Exposition in the Metropolis.

NEW YORK, July 18.—Mayor Grant has sent the following request to 500 of the most prominent men in this part of the country representing over $1,500,000:

MAYOR'S OFFICE,
NEW YORK, July 17.

DEAR SIR—I request your presence at a conference of representative citizens to consider the advisability of holding an International exposition at New York in 1892, and to arrange for the preliminary work if it is deemed advisable.

I hope you will be kind enough to attend at my office on Thursday, the 25th of July, at 8:30 o'clock. Truly yours,
HUGH J. GRANT, Mayor.

A PECULIAR ACCIDENT.

Four Men Lose Their Lives While Trying to Recover a Lost Watch.

LINCOLN, Neb., July 18.—At 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon four men lost their lives in this city under peculiar circumstances. A watch was dropped in a cess pool and the men were endeavoring to recover it. They dug a hole at the side of the pool. This hole was filled with water by the rain. One man stood on a ladder above the water and made an opening into the cess pool. The foul air and gas rushed out and overcame him and he fell into the water. A friend went to his assistance and was likewise overcome.

One by one seven men fell into the water, which by this time was full of muck and slime from the vault. Three men were rescued, some by men who afterwards perished in attempting to save the others. The dead are: James Crawford, bricklayer; Alfred Kunkler, laborer; John Cleary, blacksmith, and Frank Maloney, plasterer. Crawford and Cleary were married.

SETTLED IN ONE ROUND.

An Indian Tackles a Bull Dog and is Almost Torn to Pieces.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., July 18.—John Jones and a neighbor living south of the city was going home last night, when they got into a discussion regarding the Sullivan-Kilrain fight. As they passed the house of Mrs. Ross her dog ran out to the fence, and Jones declared that he could knock the dog out in one round.

Before his friend could interfere he entered the yard and attacked the vicious bull dog with his fists. The brute accepted the challenge, and a fierce fight ensued, in which Jones was terribly bitten about the neck and head. One eye was torn out and one ear bit off, and he would have been torn to pieces had not Mrs. Ross come to his rescue. Jones was perfectly sober.

FINANCE AND COMMERCE.

Quotations for the Money, Stock, Produce and Cattle Market for July 17.

NEW YORK.—Money at 2 and 3 per cent. Exchange quiet; governments steady. Currency 118 bid; four coupons, 128½ bid; four-and-a-halfs, 100½ bid.

The stock market this morning was more active than during the same hours on yesterday, but the loan was weaker. The dealings presented no feature of interest. London prices were lower, and the first prices here were irregular, but in most instances they showed fractional declines. The stocks at all active were Western Union, Missouri Pacific, St. Paul and Lake Shore. The lead trust was the most conspicuous of the trusts. The new stock, Cleveland, Cincinnati, Chicago and St. Louis was also quite conspicuous in the dealings. Shortly after the opening the whole market began to decline. The sugar and lead trusts declined 2 per cent. by 12 o'clock, and the general market ½ to 1 per cent., the latter in Cleveland, Cincinnati, Chicago and St. Louis. Since noon there has been a slight reaction, and at this writing the market is steady.

Sullivan and Holy Water.

Boston, July 18.—Professor Tom Drahon, who was one of the Sullivan party at the big fight last week, has reached Boston. He presented the Parrell club flag to Sullivan and had a hand in buying off the sheriff. He said it took ten $10 bills to ease the sheriff's conscience. He related one little incident that has not had publicity. Before he left home his old grandmother gave him a small vial of holy water. With Sullivan's consent he poured it on the big fellow's back, just as he was about to step up to the scratch.
